

The Real

It hasn't any map or fixture of its own but it's what we hold against whatever to compare and approve or not approve. There may be a time before we find of it there's nothing there.

William Brank

Staying On

There is another act they as much as say but the intermission's so long I may not stay.
I don't much care what way they end the play.
